A Temperance Decision.

Ottawa, 13.—Judgment was given on the Canada temperance act in the supreme court to-day. The attendance was large. Princess Louise and suite, a number of members of Parliament and prominent temperance advocates were present. Chief Justice Ritchie held that the English North American act gave the Deminion power to enact laws tending to the peace, order and good government of the country, and legislation cannot be ultra virus where the set sims at the regulation of trade and commerce. He held that the federal government had power for prohibitory legislation, for, in his mind, power to regulate was power to prohibitory legislation, for, in this mind, power to regulate was power to prohibit. An appeal was allowed, confirming the constitutionality of the act. One Year, $10.50 Six Months, 5.25 Three Months, 2.65

TILDEN.

He Will and He Won't-Take Your Choice.

Chicago, i4.—The Times New York has definite knowledge that Tilden has by no means given up his presidential sapirations; on the contrary, he is as sanguine as ever. In fact he has always been an optimist, has always culled stocks, has make meat of his money by picking up enterprises in which other men had lost faith, and this characteristic a most marked in him now. If is dis-Want to Surrender.

Washington, in.—The cabinet was informed by the secretary of war that the Sioux Indians are anxious to surrender to Gen. Miles, who thinks all can be fed and cared for as prisoners.

Gen. Sherman, who has returned from Chicago, where he went to consult with Gen. Sherman about the earrying out of the Ute agreement which passed the Sonate yesterday, dee not anticipate any trouble with the Utes. Such arrangements will be made that these can be nouthered even if the Utes are inclined to be turbulent. They will, he thinks, be removed from Colorado without any trouble. There will, of course, be a big "confab," and then the Utes will be removed as the agreement provides.
